THE TAX & MEASURE OF TAX

Sales Tax is a privilege tax imposed on the retail sale of tangible personal property sold in the Auburn tax jurisdiction by businesses located in Auburn. The tax is collected by the seller from their customer and remitted directly to the City. All sales of tangible personal property are retail sales except those defined as wholesale sales.

* Total gross proceeds from the sale of non-exempt tangible personal property including labor, unless separately itemized at the time of the sale, less any allowable deductions is subject to taxation.

Sellers Use Tax is imposed on the retail sale of tangible personal property sold in the Auburn tax jurisdiction by businesses located outside of Auburn which have no inventory located in Auburn, but are making retail sales in Auburn via sales offices, agents, or by any significant recurring contact or "nexus" with Auburn.

* Total gross proceeds from the sale of non-exempt tangible personal property including labor, unless separately itemized at the time of the sale, less any allowable deductions is subject to taxation.

Consumers Use Tax is imposed on tangible personal property brought into Auburn for storage, use, or consumption in the state when the seller did not collect seller's use tax on the sale of the property.

*Total sales amount of personal property is subject to taxation.

Rental/Leasing Tax is a privilege tax levied on the lessor for the leasing or renting of tangible personal property. The gross receipts, including any rental tax invoiced, from the leasing or rental of tangible personal property. This tax is due on "true leases" (those leases in which the title to the property is retained by the lessor at the end of the lease agreement or when the lessee has an option to purchase the item at the end of the lease agreement for the fair market value of the item).

*Total gross proceeds derived by the lessor from the rental or lease of tangible personal property is subject to taxation.

Lodging Tax is a privilege tax on persons, firms, and corporations engaged in renting or furnishing rooms, lodgings, or other accommodations to transients for periods of less than 180 days of continuous occupation and apply to all charges for providing such accommodations. This tax also applies to charges for personal property used or furnished in such rooms or lodgings.

*Total gross proceeds received from the rental of accommodations and personal property used or furnished in such an accommodation is subject to taxation.
